

Welcome to CharlotteCarling.com. We are dedicated to protecting your privacy and have developed this Privacy Policy in compliance with the GDPR. Our data collection is centered around two primary purposes: responding to inquiries and providing a monthly newsletter to subscribers. This may entail collecting information such as your name, email address, and optionally your phone number, all of which you provide voluntarily. Your contact details are exclusively used for addressing your inquiries or, if you opt-in, for sending our monthly newsletter, which includes dental hygiene tips and updates.

Rest assured, your personal information is treated with the utmost care, and we have implemented measures to safeguard it from unauthorised access, disclosure, alteration, or destruction. We do not share, sell, rent, or disclose your personal data to third parties, except when required by law or for responding to your inquiries.

You retain certain rights over your data, including access, correction, or deletion, and you can unsubscribe from our newsletter at any time if you choose to receive it. For any privacy-related inquiries or to exercise your rights, please contact us using the information provided below. If you have any questions or concerns regarding this Privacy Policy, your personal data, or our approach to privacy, please don't hesitate to reach out to us. Your privacy matters to us, and we value your trust in our dental hygiene services.

We may update this Privacy Policy as needed to reflect changes in our practices or to comply with legal requirements. Any updates will be posted on this page, and the effective date will be revised accordingly. We recommend checking this Privacy Policy periodically.
